

Composite Instrument No.1 – Gold

Description

Composite Instrument No.1 – Gold. Composite filling instrument used to transport and place dental cements. Designed for placing, sculpting and contouring direct composite resins and for application of composites during restorative procedure. Used to carry composite material for cavity preparation and shape composites. The coating on the instrument prevents the composite material from sticking. Manufactured from high grade surgical stainless steel, French SS points with hollow handles and non-stick coating.