

Minnesota Cheek Retractor 14cm

Description

Minnesota Cheek Retractor 14cm. Used to lift and protect the tissue when performing surgical extractions whilst operating the high speed drill. One end holds the cheek back and the other keeps the tongue away from the surgical area, a multipurpose instrument. It helps protect the mucosa during incisions. Manufactured from J2 stainless steel.